Thursday, January 24, 2011 Reader, I've been on a bit of a hiatus from blogging lately. The reason has nothing to do with laziness. I've been busy doing fun stuff. While I'm too lazy to blog about it, I've been working on an apocalyptic horror comic. Sadly, I can't show you much of it yet, but it's looking like it's going to be quite awesome. I will be updating my blog in the near future (if not immediately). To tide you over, and to keep you from getting bored, I present to you this little story about the Angels. Enjoy, or not, as you will. Like what you see, want more, or have suggestions, questions, comments? Send me a comment, or e-mail me at dierict@hotmail.com. I love reading what you've written, and

I enjoy your creativity. I have a couple questions: First, why is the "dreaded" comic your so proud of not at your blog? Second, do you ever get DMs or IMs from readers? That's been my problem for awhile. I've been getting a lot of "WOW YOU'RE KINDA CUTE!" messages, and I'm pretty

Discussions: A private game store for Steam users, developed by AirTeam Games. All game purchases on Steam will be available via this store. Created as an alternative to the Steam Greenlight program, for the simple reason that it is more conducive to the creation of smaller indie studios and prototypes. All games will be available to download directly from the Steam client and will also be published on Steam, however, the store is also open to users who don't use Steam. The advantage of our store is that it is easier to create. Our interface allows users to add a game, see details, make a purchase and download the game in a matter of minutes. There are no limits to the features and functionality of the store, and we are actively looking for new ways to make the process easier for everyone.

Welcome to AirTeam Games, an independent, international studio from Finland that brings you relaxing and fun games. We are a fairly small studio with only 10 people working on all the projects, but we are fast growing and many of our games are being sold worldwide. If you like games like Dear Esther, Braid or Journey, then you will enjoy AirTeam Games. We are aware that our roster is lacking in the “action” category. As such we are now inviting submissions from developers who have a game that represents our current situation well. What do we offer: We provide workspace in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, where you can focus on your game. We have connections at your disposal to other game developers (social media, travel, etc), with the goal of creating a system in which games can be more easily spread. Free support for any questions regarding development. Your game will be tested before it goes live.

BOOSTS: In this game, You can buy the following: Q: Devo leggerlo "a caldo" o "a caldo per di fuori"? Se stai leggendo un pezzo su Internet, che sia su un sito online o su un sito di riferimento (un libro, un articolo, un'opinione su un giornale...) oppure su un libro o su un articolo di riferimento (un'opera, un manuale, un'opera di riferimento) di qualsiasi genere, cosa dovrei leggerti? A caldo = “a tutto caldo” oppure “a tutto caldo per di fuori”? Non c'è scritto, nessuno si è curato degli altri sensi in cui la parola è usata... Anche io cercavo i miei significati, cercavo nelle definizioni di lingue attuali o invece nelle traduzioni di testi scelte in base alla mia lingua. Sulle uniche pagine che esistono in sopra, sono rimaste tali modifiche (su “a caldo”) che i servizi degli editori ci hanno gentilmente fatto notare che non esiste alcun senso. Ho scoperto qualcosa di recente sul "comento" che dà (o non da) voce alla parola con la stessa sintassi di "a caldo" (quella con la "a"). Inoltre, facendo il passo con il linguista Aldo Guido Ranzato, vi sono molti casi di riferimento a cui si pensa "a caldo" per cui non si capisce la sintassi dell'espressione oppure si suppone che si tratti di una parola vecchia di tanto che è stata conservata con una parola stessa perché dal passato si intend
