in ps749, team flare attacked the pokmon village while they were asleep, intending to get the pokmon under their control. team flare took control of all the pokmon in the village, with the exception of lysandre and malva. team flare sent their z-move ultimaton to blast off lysandre's pokéball, only for mewtwo to mega evolve and protect him. team flare headed to the center of the village to capture lysandre, but mewtwo followed and battled them. afterwards, team flare fled, and mewtwo followed, intending to mega evolve lysandre. however, mewtwo instead used its telekinesis to stop himself from mega evolving, while lysandre's body fell onto the rubble of the pokmon village. edited 10062011 - 5:04pm download: mega trainer 1.20 (via cheathappens) unlimited manpower, munitions, fuel, command points; instant build unitsupgradesvehiclesstructures, remove population cap, max out player unit health, zero enemy unit health, kill enemy resources, max out player structure health, zero enemy structure health. in coming apart at the dreams! , lysandre informed ash that his plan to start a new world was going to fail. for the second time in the series, the battle between him and ash was interrupted by the latter's allies. in response, lysandre had his gyarados blast ash and his friends away. ash and greninja returned to the present and metagross and regigigas arrived to take care of the gyarados. lysandre then used his pyroar to mega evolve his gyarados. greninja, however, used ice beam to freeze the bird. the resulting explosion caused a small portion of the ground to cave in, creating a new cavern. ash and greninja used quick attack to mega evolve their pokemon and use their fire blast to continue the battle. pyroar, however, used an unknown move to mega evolve itself, though greninja managed to use ice beam before it did. the three mega evolved forms quickly proved to be a match for their opponents. metagross used double team and regigigas used fire punch to cause confusion among the three. greninja then used ice beam to freeze the three pokemon, who had their mega evolution turned back. to counter this, pyroar used two mysterious swipes, one of which caused regigigas to be injured.
